

Activity Report of a Lecture on Global Warming and Energy Conservation

- 1. Name of the Activity: A lecture followed by a pop quiz on “Global Warming and Energy Conservation”.
- 2. Date: 22.01.2024
- 3. Duration: 90 minutes (approx.)
- 4. Organized By: The NSS Unit of Gokhale Memorial Girls’ College in collaboration with Indian Oil Corporation Ltd.
- 5. Details of the Resource Person/Persons: Mr. S. Roy of Petroleum Conservation Research Association.
- 6. Topics Covered in the Seminar:
 - a) India’s Energy Scenario
 - b) Global Warming (with a screening of a short video titled “An Inconvenient Truth” by Al Gore, Nobel Laureate)
 - c) Green House Gases
 - d) Energy conservation potential in domestic sector
 - e) Environmental effect of plastic pollution.
- 7. Number of Participants: 35 students (approx.)
- 8. Outcome of the Seminar: The lecture was both edifying and useful as it reminded the participants of the nature and extent of the threat humanity is facing from Global Warming and Green House Effect and made them realize the urgent need for energy conservation measures to strategically decrease our reliance on fossil fuels and also for the adoption of alternative, ecofriendly sources of energy. The pop quiz ensured that the participants were alert and responsive during the lecture and encouraged them to take the outcome of the lecture to the larger world.
- 9. Details of the Expenditure: Rs. 500/- (sponsored by the college)
- 10. Some Glimpses of the Event:

GOKHALE MEMORIAL GIRLS' COLLEGE

