

ACTIVITY REPORT ON A VISIT TO THE ALIPUR CENTRAL JAIL MUSEUM

To commemorate the auspicious birthday of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose, the visionary nationalist leader of Indian Independence, and to observe the occasion of the Republic Day of our country, also as a part to celebrate azadi ki amrit mahotsava, the teachers of Gokhale Memorial Girls' College along with the students visited The Alipur Central Jail Museum at 17 Judges Court Road, Alipur, Kolkata.

This is a place of national importance. Most of the National leaders and Revolutionaries were imprisoned here as political prisoners under British Rules. It got the status of first Central Prison in the year 1864. Later in 1906 this jail shifted to the bank of Adi Ganga. Recently, the government closed the jail and made it a historical museum.

The students visited the campus with great enthusiasm and saw the Prisoners' Cell of our National Heroes. Notable freedom fighter who were incarcerated here include Jawaharlal Nehru, Subhas Chandra Bose, Chittaranjan Das, Dinesh Gupta, Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy to name a few.
