2. Brief History

Gokhale Memorial Girls' College, a premier educational institution of India, was established in 1938, as an extension of Gokhale Memorial Girls' School. Inspired by the ideals of the nationalist leader and educationist Gopal Krishna Gokhale, the school was established in 1920 by Sarala Ray, a pioneer among Bengali women to aspire for Higher Education. As a social reformer, Sarala Ray's primary objective was not merely to produce women graduates but to guide them to become worthy citizens, capable home-builders and conscientious workers in their chosen field of activity.

The College began its journey in 1938 under the guidance of Dr.S.E.Rani Ghosh, an ardent disciple of Sarala Ray. Her untiring efforts helped the Institution to attain its present position of excellence. Beginning initially as an Intermediate College, today the Institution offers a number of Honours and Major Courses.

The Department of Psychology of this College enjoys the distinction of being the first to introduce undergraduate course under the University of Calcutta in 1957.

6. Discipline

Admission of a student in this College implies adherence to the prescribed code of conduct and observance of the rules laid down by the College. Full co-operation in this regard is sought from the guardians. Any student who fails to abide by these rules will be strictly dealt with.

6.1. Rules

- Students must maintain discipline within college premises.
- Students must be punctual and regular in attending classes.
- Students must produce the College Identity Card at the gate everyday failing which they will be denied entry.
- Students must not use cell phones for any purpose inside the college buildings. Violation of this rule will be punished by confiscation of the mobile set and financial penalty.
- During college hours, no student is allowed to attend coaching classes, join other courses of study or engage herself in any other related activity outside the College premises.
- Attendance in college examinations and tutorials is compulsory for the students.
- Students must maintain decent and cordial relationship with the faculty and staff and amongst themselves.
- Ragging In Any Form Is Strictly Prohibited. Disciplinary action will be taken against those who violate this rule. It is mandatory for all students and guardians to sign an affidavit in the proforma prescribed by the University of Calcutta related to ragging

6.2. Code of conduct

6.2.1. For the students

- Students shall strictly abide by the Rules and Regulations of the College.
- Students shall not, by their act or conduct, demonstrate any disrespect to the Principal, teaching or non- teaching staff of the college.
- Students shall not, by their act or conduct, cause damage to the reputation of the institution.
- Students shall not damage property or cause financial loss to the college. In the event the college suffers any damage or loss, financial or otherwise, the concerned student will be liable for compensation of such loss.
- Proposals for students' welfare and appeals for solution of problems connected with academic and co- curricular activities in the College shall be submitted in writing either to the Principal or to the Convener of Student Welfare Sub-committee. The decision of the Principal in such matters will be final.

- Students shall not in any manner try to influence or interfere with any decision taken by the academic bodies and the authority of the college.
- A student may submit a written representation to the College authority for redressal of grievance, if any. The decision of the College authority, in such matters, shall be final.
- A student shall not commit or cause breach of peace inside and around the College campus.

- A student attending at least 75% of the total number of classes* held shall be allowed to appear at the concerned Semester Examinations subject to fulfilment of other conditions laid down in the regulations.
- A student attending at least 60% but less than 75% of the total number of classes* held shall be allowed to appear at the concerned Semester Examinations subject to the payment of prescribed fees and fulfilment of other conditions laid down in the regulations.
- A student attending less than 60% of the total number of classes* held shall not be allowed to appear at the concerned Semester Examinations and he /she has to pursue admission to the same Semester in the very next year for attending the classes and appearing at the said Semester Examination.

*Such attendance will be calculated from the date of commencement of classes or the date of admission, whichever is later.

6.2.2. For the parents/Guardians

Gokhale Memorial Girls' College ensures a peaceful learning environment that is safe, positive, harmonious and supportive for all students and staff of the College. The College runs efficiently with the help of the Governing Body, the Teachers' Council, Statutory and Non-statutory Committees formed with teacher members, the Non-teaching Office Staff and the Support Staff. The institution inculcates inclusive values within its campus. The faculty and staff work together to engage students in a holistic process of growth - academic, social, creative, psychological and spiritual. The College considers the parents/guardians of the students to be active partakers in the formation of each student. Parents/guardians are expected to assist the College in the formation of their wards into good individuals and worthy citizens of the country. Parents and Guardians are expected to cooperate with the College authorities in this regard and follow the Code of Conduct as given below.

1. The term “parents/guardians”, refers to the persons named in the official register of the College during the time of enrolment as the parent or guardian of the student.
2. Parents/Guardians of the students are expected to uphold the vision, values, ethos and policies, and procedures adopted by the College, including its commitment to diversity, respect for individual differences, and secularism. Thus, parents should guide their wards to maintain the correct demeanour and act in due manner. Ragging of any kind is strictly prohibited. Parents should encourage their wards to be empathetic towards fellow students, peers and so on.
3. Parents should ensure that their wards attend all classes of the disciplines chosen by them regularly.

4. Parents/guardians should inform the HoD when a student is on leave due to ill health or due to unavoidable circumstances for more than 3 consecutive days.
5. Parents must maintain contact with the faculty to keep themselves updated about the progress of their wards. Parents must ensure that their wards do appear without fail for formative evaluations like class tests and tutorial tests and for summative evaluations such as Mock Tests, held by the concerned department.
6. Parents must guide their wards to attend college in attire appropriate for an educational institution.
7. Parents must visit the College Website regularly along with their wards to keep themselves updated about college activities, office requirements, examination notices and so on.
8. The College expects the parents/guardians to deal with the College authorities themselves in matters regarding the students and raise their issues and concerns regarding their wards' performance or problems with the right person and follow the correct communication channels according to the College's policies and procedures. No outsiders or relatives are expected to engage with matters of the students unless it is duly informed beforehand by the real guardian.
9. Parents/Guardians should come to the Parent-Teacher meetings held at regular intervals by the respective departments. They should remember the fact that formation of the student is the collective responsibility of teachers and parents/guardians. It is the aim and objective of the Parent-Teacher interface to ensure good relationship among students, staff and parents/guardians. It should help to maintain the discipline and the academic and infrastructural standards of the College.

10. Parents must keep themselves abreast of the Government Scholarship Schemes facilitated by the College to guide their wards in availing them on time.
11. Parents/Guardians should maintain courteous and respectful attitude towards the staff (teaching and non-teaching) of the College and advise their wards to do the same.
12. In matters of discord and/or grievances, parents/guardians are requested to meet the Principal/respective HoD directly. With regard to any complaints regarding grave issues, the parents/guardians must meet the Principal first of all. In matters where other students are involved and particularly in the premises of the college, the concerned parent shall first meet the Principal and then meet the other students, only in the presence of the Principal. Problematic issues and grievances can be resolved through direct conversation.
13. The College takes seriously any issues that are brought to its attention through the Anti-ragging Committee/Internal Complaints Committee. Thus Parents/Guardians must refrain from using social media to fuel discontent or criticism against individual college employees, other parents, students, or college programmes or services.
