On the 25th of November, 2025, the Pashimbanga Bangla Academy, under the Tathya o Sanskriti Bibhag, Government of West Bengal, extended an invitation to our institution to attend the commemoration of the birth anniversary of the iconic Bengali poet, Shakti Chattopadhyay. Students from the Department of History, Gokhale Memorial Girls' College, along with students from the Departments of English and Communicative English, participated in the programme. They were accompanied by three faculty members representing their respective departments. The event provided the students with an enriching cultural experience, allowing them to engage closely with Bengal's rich literary heritage and to gain meaningful exposure to the life, works, and legacy of Shakti Chattopadhyay. Attending such a significant cultural gathering enhanced their understanding of contemporary literary appreciation and the role of public institutions in preserving Bengal's artistic traditions.

3. Aim of the Seminars/conferences/workshops (within 100 words):

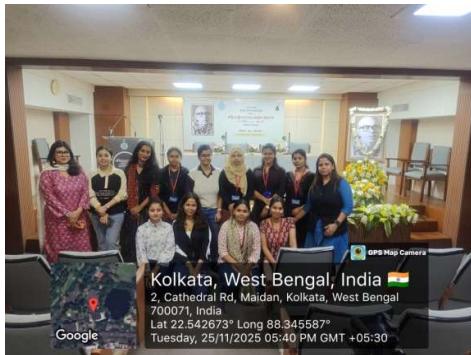

1. To provide students with exposure to Bengal's literary heritage, particularly the life and works of the iconic poet Shakti Chattopadhyay.
