10. Outcome of the Special Lecture:

The Seven-Day NSS Special Camp achieved its objectives of promoting community engagement, social responsibility, and the holistic development of both NSS volunteers and the local community. The handicraft training programme enhanced the creativity and practical skills of school students while encouraging the use of eco-friendly and recyclable materials. The free health check-up camp increased awareness regarding preventive healthcare, personal hygiene, and the importance of regular medical examinations among community members.

The quiz competition fostered intellectual curiosity, improved general awareness, and encouraged healthy competition among the participating students. The cultural programme provided a platform for volunteers and the students to showcase their talents while promoting messages of national integration, social harmony and community cooperation.

The camp also strengthened the leadership, communication, organizational, and teamwork skills of the NSS volunteers through their active participation in planning and implementing various activities.
