

GOKHALE MEMORIAL GIRLS' COLLEGE

ACTIVITY REPORT OF QUIZ COMPETITION ON T.S. ELIOT AND JAMES JOYCE

A team of four students from the department of English Gokhale Memorial Girls' College demonstrated their flair as budding literary quizzers in a Quiz Competition on T.S. Eliot and James Joyce organised by the Department of English Rabindra Bharati University to commemorate the centenary year of High Modernism. There were participants from various eminent institutes like St. Xavier's College, Jadavpur University, RKM Narendrapur, Vidyasagar University, Rabindra Bharati University in that quiz. Our students after qualifying for the final round quite closely displayed their grit and tenacity being unperturbed by the pressure of the final. Answering every question with ease and panache, they gradually took the name of the college to the apotheosis again overshadowing the other formidable contenders. Gokhale Memorial Girls' College heartily congratulates these four students from the Department of English on their triumph.
