SARGAM 25'

Indian Navy Band Concert, visit by NCC unit of GMGC

Report by Sergeant Moitreyee Mondal

Throwback to 1945 exactly 80 years from now the origin of the titans The Indian Naval Band. Started with only a handful musicians has come a long way. The Indian Naval Symphonic Orchestra performed Sargam 2025, on November 14th, 2025 at INS Netaji Subhas. Performing versatility and elegance in every act, under the baton of Lieutenant Commander Pradeep Kumar A assisted by Sarat Kumar Singh Babu, Master Chief Musician second class.

The event was graced by chief guests Lieutenant General Mohit Malhotra and Inspector General Iqbal Singh Chauhan which made the evening even more special. There were students present from different schools, institute and battalion such as from 1 Bn Girls NCC, 20 Bn Battalion, Kendriya Vidyalaya Joka and many more.

The NCC unit of Gokhale Memorial Girls' College was honored to receive the opportunity to attend and enjoy the Indian Navy Band Concert. From our college, our respected CTO Nabamita Chakraborty with the cadets of 2nd year Sgt Moitreyee Mondal, Cdt Simran Das, Cdt Muskan Kumari, Cdt Aanchal Dasgupta and the newly enrolled cadets were also present.

The concert was held at INS Netaji at 4:00 PM, and from the moment we arrived, the atmosphere was filled with excitement, pride, and enthusiasm. The programme featured a series of powerful and entertaining performances by the Naval Unit, each reflecting discipline, coordination, and exceptional talent. We enjoyed a lot throughout the event cheering, interacting, appreciating every performance, and capturing memories together.

Along with entertainment, it also proved to be a motivating and enriching experience that strengthened our dedication and enthusiasm towards our nation. The event helped us bond more closely as a team and reaffirmed the values of unity, discipline, and patriotism within us. Overall, the Naval Unit Concert was truly a memorable evening that we will cherish for a very long time.
